Helicopter Stories: The importance of adding movement to your story sessions

This session is a creative and dynamic way to inspire reluctant writers within the EYFS through communication, language and writing.

This session will:

- Support with developing the helicopter stories principles into your EYFS provision and practice
- Provide ideas which consider how to successfully bring helicopter stories and storytelling into your curriculum
- Provide a method to measure the impact both quantifiably and qualitatively
- Answer questions behind these methods

This session is relevant for all EYFS staff.

Date of training:

Monday 8th April

13:00 - 15:30

Delivered by Suzanne Dunn - Early Year's Consultant at Drayton Manor Hotel,
Nr Tamworth, Staffordshire B78 3TW

Cost: £65 per delegate.

Refreshments will be provided.

Special Offer - Book both Helicopter stories and Developing Communication and Oracy Skills for Early Years Children for only £100 per delegate
